

river city communications

A PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT RELATIONS FIRM

Tiffany Mendoza joined River City Communications in the summer of 2006 as an Account Executive. Prior to joining River City, Tiffany served on the staff of Assemblyman John J. Benoit in the state Capitol where she was responsible for scheduling, issues research and constituent affairs.

Tiffany also worked for the public affairs firm Bicker, Castillo and Fairbanks where, in addition to day to day client support, she assisted with the Yes on Proposition 1A campaign (local government finance) in 2004. In this capacity she was responsible for grassroots coalition building, coordination of speakers for statewide events and served as the primary contact for voter inquiries.

Tiffany also brings knowledge of local government to the job with experience working on special projects in the areas of Economic Development, Public Works, and the City Managers office for the City of Rancho Cordova.

Tiffany graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Wright State University in Ohio.